Y. M. C. A. BREAKS EVEN ON EXPENSES

First Time in Local History Both Ends Meet, Excluding Interest on Debt.

The Memphis Y. M. C. A. is now virtually self-sustaining, except for the payment of interest on bonded indebtedness, the records for last month showing that possibly for the first time in the history of the local association, the revenues met all current expenses. Every department of the work is in a most flourishing condition and the future of the Y. M. C. A. in this city never looked brighter.

With promised relief from the constant and pressing problems of making ends meet, which usually cast a heavy shadow over the meetings of the board of directors, the meeting at the association building Friday noon took on a new tone, and a new note of interest and enthusiasm was manifested by all the directors. With zeal renewed by the encouraging report of progress, the board voted to make a determined effort to remove the load of debt that for years has burdened the efforts of the association in taking the greatest advantage of its opportunities for usefulness to the community.

Each year it requires $7,500 to pay the interest on the indebtedness of the association, incurred in erecting and equipping the present splendid building, one of the finest for its purpose in the South. With this debt removed, it is believed that it will not be necessary for the association to call on the public for contributions for its support, as it has been necessary to do in the past.

This task will be undertaken in the coming south-wide Y. M. C. A. drive to be waged Oct. 30-31. In this campaign it is proposed to finance the payment of all standing indebtedness and provide a budget to meet all requirements of the association for two years. All Y. M. C. A.'s of the South will enter into a joint campaign at this time, to provide for their local needs and for the support of the national and international work.

The importance of this undertaking was emphasized at the meeting Friday noon by O. E. Brown, of Nashville, chairman of the state conference, C. Jackson, state secretary, and S. M. Schmidt, state director of the south-wide drive, who were present and spoke on the various phases of the campaign. Plans are under way for the extension and enlargement of the work at Memphis, so that the facilities of the association may be made available to as large a number of citizens as possible. An industrial division is to be organized for the purpose of reaching the employees of the many factories and manufacturing plants of the city, as well as other fields that the association has not been able to cover in the past as the management and board of directors feel that it should.

WOMEN ABANDON PLAN FOR TICKET

Mrs. Reese Has Platform Which All Candidates Are Asked to Support.

The plan advanced by Mrs. Isaac Reese and a number of women associated with her to hold a convention and put a third ticket in the field for city officers has been abandoned.

Instead, Mrs. Reese and about 75 other ladies met Thursday afternoon and adopted a platform which they will ask all candidates for city offices to endorse and pledge themselves to support. This platform demands many things that every set of candidates in Memphis for the past 20 years have promised, many of which promises have been forgotten as soon as the election was over. It includes law enforcement, economy, the abolition of useless offices, the appointment of women on the advisory board of the juvenile court, and of a board of women motion picture censors, the appointment of women on both the police and detective forces. Special emphasis is laid on opposition to the city manager plan, and the provision of adequate funds for the support of the city schools. The platform closes with a demand that hereafter nominations for both city and county officers be made in primary elections. A closing paragraph pledges the candidates to work for a law giving women the right to vote in all primary elections, as well as in municipal elections.

Mrs. Reese presided and explained that she and others working with her had thought it best to abandon the plan for ward meetings and a convention to put out a third ticket. It has been anticipated that the plan for another ticket to be backed primarily by women would not be carried out.

A. L. Parker Chosen New President Of Local Boy Scouts

A. L. Parker, general manager of the Memphis hotel and the Chickasaw Hotel companies, was elected president of the Boy Scouts at a meeting held at 10 o'clock Friday by the executive committee. Mr. Parker who has long been interested in the Boy Scout movement and a leader in it here, succeeded John B. Edgar, who recently resigned the post of president. The plans of the executive committee are to make the work of the Boy Scouts during the next 12 months the most successful in the history of the organization in Memphis and they believe that with Mr. Parker as president, and with the $1,000 fund now being raised by the Rotary club that they will be enabled to realize their aims. The administration of the affairs of the Boy Scouts under Mr. Edgar has been highly successful and his designation was accepted with regret by members of the executive committee.

Committee On City Planning Will Be Named For C. Of C.

W. H. Pittsford, president of the Chamber of Commerce, believes that organization should take the lead in all movements for city betterment and head of the chamber he has appointed a number of new committees to carry out his ideas for enlarging the scope of the chamber's work. He is planning now to appoint a special committee on city planning, which shall inaugurate plans for the growth of the city along lines of civic beauty and utility and through whose hands all such matters are to be handled. He is now considering the names of a number of men qualified to act on such a committee, and will make his appointments within the next few weeks. Architects and industrial engineers will be among those named to the committee, which will not be a large one, but which will be representative of the men who have given thought to such matters.

of Records

Costs No More Than the Ordinary Phonograph

You're going to buy a phonograph! All right—which? Well, what do you want in a phonograph anyway? Pleasure first. Tone always! But mainly the pleasure you get out of it.

Right? All right—then the Pathe is Your Phonograph!

Even if it were no better in tone than all the others—the elimination of the changing of needles would be enough.

If its tone were merely as good as all the others—the fact that the record does not wear out would be enough.

But it's plain as daylight that a BALL of sapphire, jewel-polished under the microscope and fitting perfectly into the half-circle of the record-groove, along which it smoothly, beautifully GLIDES, is bound to produce a tone of purer quality than any you have ever known before.

Listen to the ordinary talking machines. Then hear the Pathe.

Listen to the tone—pure, clear and crisp—as it comes from the instrument, free from the harsh, metallic sounds so objectionable in other phonographs. SEE THE SAPPHIRE BALL glide smoothly around the record. No needles to change! No bother! No expense! Always ready. Your ears will decide. They will tell you that Pathe is the best.

SCHOOL BOOK SHORTAGE IS FURTHER RELIEVED

With the receipt of an ample supply of fourth readers and Thompson's histories, the A. B. Taylor company Friday announced that the shortage of school books had been further relieved. Publishers, according to advices received here, are working night and day in an effort to get out a sufficient supply of books.

Edmondson's writing books for all grades from the third to the eighth as well as third readers and language books No. 1, are expected to arrive at any time.

That the situation in Memphis will have been sufficiently relieved to enable all public school pupils to begin work in all of their studies by the first of next week, is the hope of the local agents. Many of the books are being sent in by express and in this way are reaching their destination in less time than would otherwise be required.

DAIRYMEN INDICTED.

M. F. Hudgens, dairyman, was Friday indicted by the grand jury under the state pure food law in a charge of selling adulterated milk.
